El Camino Artist Has 30 Exhibits

Allan Ferguson, El Camino College art student, was honored during the past month as a showing of more than 30 of his sculptured pieces were featured at the Los Angeles County Fair in Pomona.

Ferguson was awarded an exclusive exhibit by Dr. Robert Troutman, coordinator of junior college education for Los Angeles County.

"THIS YOUNG man's work continues to receive more recognition each day and the response to his ability to express moods of humor and pathos in ceramics is very heartening," Joe Gadden, El Camino ceramics instructor, commented.

Ferguson studied art at Leuzinger High School, put education aside to spend three years with the Navy in World War II and resumed his art studies during a trip to Europe in 1947. His studies have continued on the El Camino Campus for the past several semesters.

THE YOUNG artist met and married his wife, Lillian, while in Norway and they are now the parents of four children.

A degree in education is Ferguson's primary goal. For this he attends college class during the day and works as an industrial electrician at North American Aviation at night.

BUFFET SUPPER SUNDAY TO FETE CIVIC SYMPHONY BOARD MEMBER

A gala buffet supper at the home of Mayor and Mrs. H.F.B. Roessler Sunday afternoon in Palos Verdes Estates will launch the fall season of the Torrance-South Bay Civic Symphony. The affair, to which about 200 have been invited, will honor the newly elected board of directors of the community orchestra and its leader, Miss Elyse Aehle.

Mrs. Fay Newman, Torrance resident and opera star, will sing during the afternoon, and 16-year-old David Pinto, pianist and composer, will perform for the visitors. He is a pupil of Dr. Nino M. Albanese.

AMONG THE NEW executive board members to be introduced during the afternoon will be Jan Darian, who has been re-elected to serve his second term as president of the group.

Serving as president of the local symphony comes naturally to Darian, who served for many years on the board of the Berlin Philharmonic. He is well known in operatic and dance circles in this country and abroad, and has performed many times as premiere dancer at the Berlin State Opera, and at La Scala in Milan, Italy; Covent Garden Theatre, London's famous Bow Street home of Grand Opera; the Opera Comique in Paris, and elsewhere throughout Europe and the Near East.

His talents have brought him to Command Performances before the British royal family and Pope Pius XI in Rome.

In the United States, he has performed in a gamut ranging from Red Cross Benefits during World War II to the White House, from community celebrations to Carnegie Hall.

JOINING DARIAN in the leadership of the symphony this year will be Charles Wortham, Torrance's ex-officio ambassador to Turkey last year.

Wortham is past president of the Redondo Beach Optimist Club, has been area chairman of the March of Dimes for a decade, was chairman of the USO in the South Bay during World War II, was president of the South Bay Chapter of the American Field Service for two years, and was mayor of Redondo Beach for four years, a councilman for six.

SECRETARY for the coming year will be Viola Niland, chairman of the National Piano Playing tournament since its founding 25 years ago, and an instructor in piano at Redondo and Huntington Beach high schools for eight years.

A writer of note on musical subjects, Miss Niland's work has appeared in professional music magazines and newspapers for several years.

NEW TREASURER of the symphony is Mrs. Daisy O'Geary, "teacher of the year" for Marina District women's clubs, "woman of the year" in Redondo Beach, and active in many civic affairs in the South Bay.

Mrs. O'Geary is past president of the Redondo Beach Women's Club, past president of the City of Hope chapter, director of the Salvation Army, chairman of the junior auxiliary work for the new South Bay Hospital, and associate editor of the national magazine of Phi Delta Gamma.
